Borough Curbside Leaf Collection

The Borough's Curbside Leaf Collection service will continue until early December weather permitting. Please rake your leaves to the curb as soon as possible. December 4th is the last day to put out your leaves!

Understanding Medicare--Basics for Boomers

Scheduled for Tuesday, December 5, 2017, 6:30 to 8:30 pm at the Madison Public Library, 39 Keep Street. Registration required, click here to register. This two hour seminar, explained in easy-to-understand terms, is vital if you are approaching Medicare eligibility within the next 5-10 years, or are a caregiver for (or the adult child of) someone approaching Medicare eligibility. Presented by Neil Berger, who has more than thirty years experience in the Human Resources profession, including training and development and managing Human Resources Departments in a variety of industries.

This seminar was developed partly as a result of discovering that a large number of his employees had incorrect or non-existent information regarding their government-provided benefits. Join him for a fact- and fun-filled seminar. This is not a sales presentation. Mr Berger does not represent any company selling insurance or any other product. Free and open to the public.

Free Rabies Clinic - Saturday, December 9th

The Madison Health Department is holding a free Rabies Clinic on Saturday, December 9th from 10:00 am to 12:00 pm at the Department of Public Works garage, 34 John Avenue. Click here for more information.
