30th Anniversary – Michael Piano of the Madison Electric Utility on December 7th.

Proclamation:

Dr. Esposito presented a proclamation to Boy Scout Joseph Falco III recognizing Boy Scout Troop 25 for their work clearing the historic former road at the 49-Acres.

Proclamation

of the

Borough of Madison

Recognizing
WHEREAS, Troop No. 25 recently cleared the historic former road, located in the 49 Acres, on what once was the horse and dairy farm of the Twombly estate and which mansion is now part of Fairleigh Dickinson University; and

WHEREAS, the troop conducted the clean-up under the direction of the Borough of Madison Mayor and Council, the Thirty-Nine Acres Committee, Shade Tree Management Board and Madison High School Cross-Country Coaches; and

WHEREAS, Scout Joseph Falco III spearheaded this intense four-hour “trail-blazing” by the scouts of Troop 25, their scout leaders and parents, to ensure that this former road was safe once again for pedestrian traffic; and

WHEREAS, in the future, this beautiful, pin-oak lined historic walk will lead from the high school tennis courts to the state-of-the-art multi-purpose active and passive recreation facility;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mary-Anna Holden, Mayor of the Borough of Madison, on behalf of the governing body, do hereby thank project leader, Boy Scout Joseph Falco III, and Boy Scouts of America Troop No. 25 for the work they accomplished in clearing this historic former roadway.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Finance and Borough Clerk
Mr. Conley, Chair of the Committee, made the following comments:
Mr. Conley noted a recent 2012 Budget hearing and announced that additional dates will be scheduled in the New Year. Mr. Conley thanked Mayor Holden for fourteen years of service to the residents of Madison and thanked Council member Cerciello as well.

Public Safety
Mrs. Tsukamoto, Chair of the Committee, made the following comments:
Mrs. Tsukamoto thanked Mayor Holden and Mr. Cerciello for their service. Mrs. Tsukamoto commented that, in considering the 2012 Municipal Budget, she would like to control the tax increase for 2012 under 2% and preferable zero percent. Mrs. Tsukamoto advised that the Madison Police Department has increased DWI patrols and noted that holiday safety tips are available on the Borough website.

Utilities
Dr. Esposito, Chair of the Committee, made the following comments:
Dr. Esposito thanked Mayor Holden for encouraging him to enter public service and thanked Mr. Cerciello for his time served on Council. Dr. Esposito noted a vehicle accident on Park Avenue resulted in the lose of electric power to many neighborhood for several hours and thanked Electric Department personnel for their quick response in repairing the damage.

Public Works and Engineering
Mr. Cerciello, Chair of the Committee, made the following comments:
Mr. Cerciello noted that leaf collection will be completed this week. Mr. Cerciello wish Council Members-Elect Mr. Landrigan and Mrs. Vitale all the best and stated that he has enjoyed service as Council member.

Health & Public Assistance
Mr. Links, Chair of the Committee, made the following comments:
Mr. Links thanked Mayor Holden and Mr. Cerciello for their services to the community and noted that he has not report.

Community Affairs
Mr. Catalanello, Chair of the Committee made the following comments:
Mr. Catalanello wished to recognize Mayor Holden for her service to the residents of Madison and also thanked Mr. Cerciello. Mr. Cerciello noted that the 39 Acre Passive Recreation committee met to walk through of the proposed jogging/walking trails and now has a good idea of how the trails should be laid out. Committee members will address the Council regarding the community gardens during the agenda discussions.

Mr. Mezzacca asked to discuss with Council a resolution adopted at the last meeting to clarifying the acceptance of donations from the Madison Athletic Foundation. Resolution R 275-2011 clarifies that user fees collected by the MAF may be used to pay principal and interest on MRC debt and to fund construction of a field house and other amenities on the MRC site by the MAF. Mr. Mezzacca asked for Council confirmation that their intention is that the resolution adopted states any donations would first be used for payment of the debt on the Madison Recreations Center, and any excess could be use to pay principle as well as construction of various facilities or structures. Following discussion there was agreement by Council to confirm their intent as stated by Mr. Mezzacca regarding Resolution R 275-2011 adopted at the November 28, 2011 meeting of the Mayor and Council.
